We the “Mariners” of 1957 Salute you,

Mr. James R. Hanshumaker

Dedication

We the class of 1957 have chosen to dedicate our annual to you, Mr. James R. Hanshumaker, director of Instrumental Music at Harbor High School, in appreciation of the hard work you have done for us.

You have been our class advisor and have guided us during trying times - such as the Junior-Senior Prom, Junior Play and Senior Play, and our many financial projects. With your able and interested supervision, our endeavors have been successful.

We thank you again.

To Our Parents:

We the seniors of 1957 take this opportunity to thank you publicly for the food, shelter, clothing, love, understanding, and guidance you have given us.

You have been the most influential forces in our lives. Your teachings were the first we received, and they made the most lasting impressions on us. You have molded our character be it good or bad.

We are grateful that you never gave up when the going got rough, but rather gave us courage and the desire to go on.

Now as we reach the first great milestone in our lives, we realize that we are about to gain independence at last; however, we are certain that we will never be completely independent of you.

For all the material things which we take for granted, for your guiding hands, and most of all, for your love and understanding, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Around Harbor High

Seniors of 1957 . . .

May I congratulate you on having reached this high point of achievement in your life. Graduating from high school probably is the greatest goal you have ever realized.

In reaching this goal, you have had immense help along the way. Your parents realize how important an education is and have encouraged you in good and difficult times. Your teachers have been a constant source of strength and inspiration. They have helped quence your thirst for knowledge; they have been your friend when you really needed friendship and understanding; they have at times illuminated your goals when they became dim; and they have offered varied suggestions for your guidance.

Your education to date has developed in the greatest age of mankind. You have had many circumstances and events going in your favor. You have lived and attended school in the greatest scientific age of the world. You have been able to accept the fruits of the thinking and acting of all ages past. You have gone to modern schools and had the best teachers. You have enjoyed living in the most modern homes. You have enjoyed all the fruits of modern communication and transportation in your recreational and social living. In all of these things you have been blessed.

In spite of all these blessings, you have had the greatest pressures put on your life. You live in an age in which it is difficult to sort truth from propaganda. Many organized forces, both for good and evil, gamble for your energies and abilities. You have had and will have to make decisions which will determine your usefulness to mankind. You find it often difficult to see the plan of God in the whole universe and in your own life.

You can be a product of the age and sink in mediocrity or you can rise above the age and provide the leadership the world so badly needs. You can be great personalities, either worldwide or on the local scene.

This is what I wish for each of you; that you develop an abiding faith in God and come to feel yourself as a son of God; that you have and will make many friends as you go through life; that you, each one, complete your education so that you can attain great realization out of service and can take care of yourself and yours in any emergency; and that you develop a pattern of living, so you can work hard, play hard, rest well, and worship deeply. I also hope that you may live in a world of peace.

Sincerely,

Ralph S. Lanham, Superintendent

Class History

I am the Mariner Yearbook. I've been around Harbor a long time, and I've seen a lot of classes come and go. Let me tell you something about this class of 1957.

I remember the day when they came to kindergarten for the first time. What a sorry-looking bunch of landlubbers they were! I guess Miss Tilton wondered if she'd ever make Mariners of 'em. They liked kindergarten though, and had a great time playing with the turtles, guinea pigs, and such.

When they got to the first grade (yes, all of them DID pass.) they started really working on their "one house plus two houses equal three houses" and "The Adventures of Jim and Judy." They began to like school, though none of them would admit it. There was great rivalry between "Washington kids" and "Jackson kids." Each of them knew that his or her school was better.

In the sixth grade they put on an operetta called "Sunny." John Dodge, as I remember, was the star; Jack Leonard made a terrifying villain; and I'll never forget Twinkletoes, the court jester. It was Gary Lesperance, of course!

They were pretty excited about going to high school. Armed with H-Books and plenty of enthusiasm, they faithfully went up and down the wrong stairs, and were often seen in the wrong class, or peeking behind a door to look at the number.

By the time they were freshmen, they were beginning to get their sea legs as far as school was concerned. They struggled successfully through Algebra and Latin I (with a few exceptions, of course,) and now they were eager to be in senior high.

The sophomore year came bringing the privilege of sitting upstairs in assembly and of calling all younger students "underclassmen."

The last three years were busy ones. Their junior play, "Drums of Death," brought out undiscovered talent in the class. The highlight of their junior year was their prom. They were proud of the work they did on it, and rightly so. Their theme was "Evening in Paris" and they transformed the gym into a convincing sidewalk cafe.

As seniors they chalked up an undefeated football season. They had become a fine crew of Mariners.

It's time now to close my pages on the Mariners of 1957 as a class; but don't lose track of them as they start out in the world as individuals. I have a feeling that they're destined for great things.

Junior-Senior Prom

Beautiful!!! Exciting!!! and Romantic!!! This was the setting of our Junior-Senior Prom.

Dinner was held at the Bethany Lutheran Parrish House and the dance and party at Fawcett Gymnasium. Breakfast was served by our parents.

A week of work on the part of the juniors had transformed the gym into gay Paree. At the sidewalk cafes, bordered by palms, the tables were arranged in cabre' fashion under colorful striped awnings.

A French-attired orchestra played beneath the Eiffel Tower. In the center of the floor a wishing fountain shimmered under a fluorescent moon, while couples danced under a false ceiling of midnight blue, sparkling with stars. Truly, this was an "Evening in Paris"!!!

Homecoming

Queen Marie McCoy reigned over homecoming festivities September 21 and 22. The candidates were nominated by the senior class and the queen elected by the entire student body, excluding the seventh grade.

The coronation ceremony was performed during the half-time show at the Harbor-Perry game. Riding in a Thunderbird convertible provided by a local car dealer, the queen proceeded to the 50-yard line. Members of her court--Penny Behrendt, Beverly Broughton, Ann Hall, and Carol Hall--also rode onto the field in open convertibles.

After paying tribute to the Music Boosters by forming a note, the band formed four lines through which Marie and her attendants marched, to the tune of "Processional Pageantry." Co-Captains Dick Macaro and Al Talvola then presented all five girls with gifts. Al kissed the queen.

The drizzle did not dampen the ceremony too much. To make the evening complete, the Mariners defeated Perry 13-0. The homecoming dance which was held Saturday night in Fawcett Gymnasium, was sponsored by the Senior Girl's Club.

Four varsity cheerleaders are graduating this year. They are Penny Behrendt, Charlotte Heisroth, Mary Lou Jaskela, and Sandra Lanham. They received letters last year and medals this year for their service. The two juniors who will be cheering again next year are Sue Smith and Vicki Vacchelli. The cheerleaders have held pep meetings for almost all of the games. They also held two very good pep rallies.

MAJORETTES

The Majorettes of Harbor Sr. Band strike a dignified pose in full military uniform. They are: Mary Lois Lindenmayer, Gwen Miller, Carol Aciemo, Karen Knudsen.

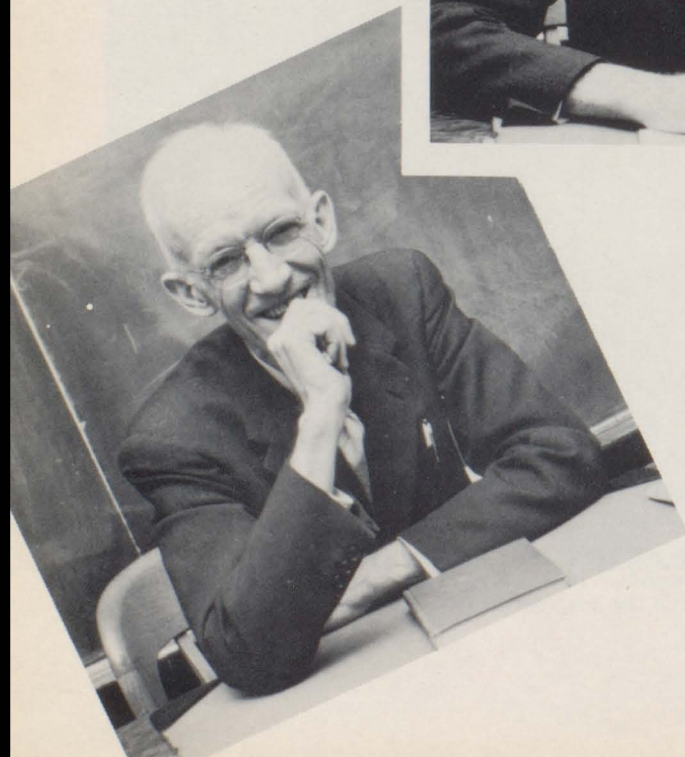

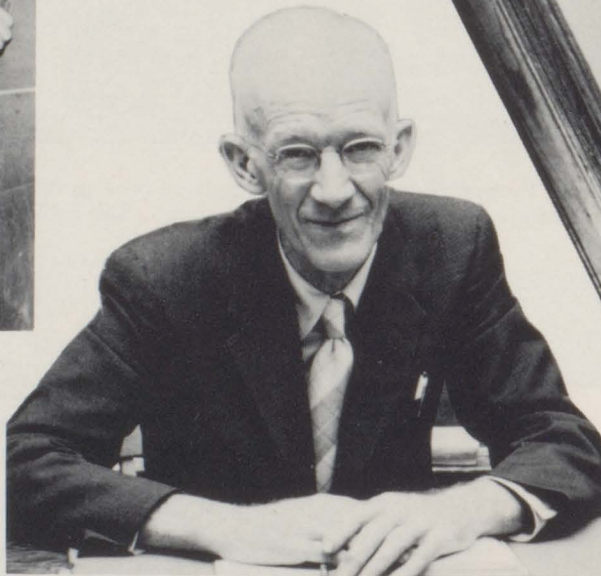

Carol Aciemo--Head Majorette for two years.

The girls go strictly ragtime here in self-designed costumes. This is a scene from the Variety Show in which the Majorettes participate annually.

Voted Our Favorite

"This man for his grinning is known; his troubles he'll never bemoan."

Not only is Mr. Fawcett our first choice but he has been a favorite at Harbor for thirty-one years.

Famous for his jokes and good humor, Mr. Fawcett's laughter rings through the halls. Teasing is his favorite pastime and he's always caught up on the love lives of the students. The boys get along with him fine but for girls he holds a warm spot in his heart.

Mr. Fawcett will long be remembered by our class.

Senior band is a multiple unit organization consisting of a Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, and several ensembles and soloists which perform at civic as well as school functions.

This year the Marching Band appeared at all home football games, the game at Chardon, the Annual Band Review at Edgewood, and in all local parades.

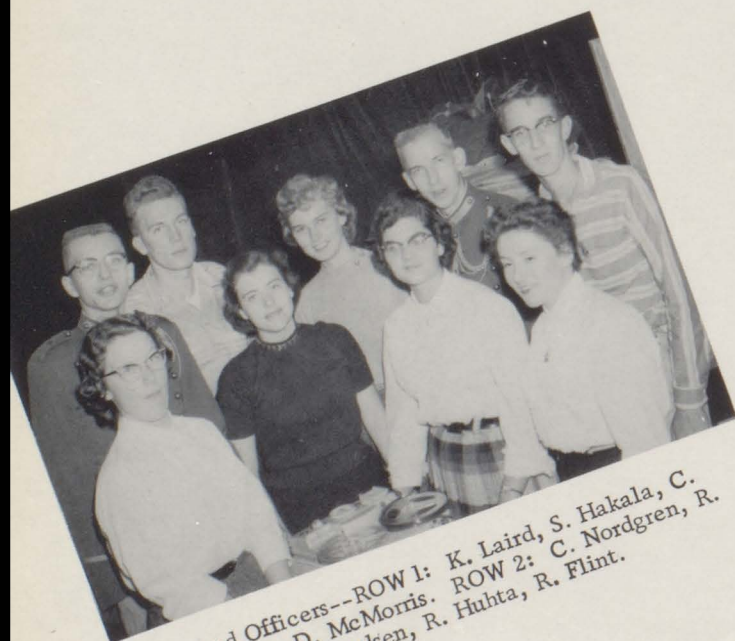

Soloists and ensembles entered District and State Contests as always.

Two major performances of the Concert Band were the Winter Concert in January, and the Spring Music Festival in May.

The Concert Band also performed many programs and exchange concerts out of the city.

A long playing record of the Concert Band was made again this year, and it is available from any Band member.

Mr. James Hanshumaker directs the group.

The Harbor Senior Capella Choir under the direction of Herbert Bierdeman has been a busy group the entire school year.

In November after two months' practice they performed for the school's observance of American Education Week.

The impressive Christmas Meditation, performed December 16, was also given in assembly for the entire student body.

The Choir recorded a variety of selections in January and February and exchanged assembly programs with Ashtabula, Edgewood, Geneva, and Conneaut during March and April.

Spring performances were given at the All-School Music Festival, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

The Choir worked hard, sang well, and had a good bit of fun in doing it.

The Student's Voice

The Student Council of Harbor High School, organized in 1955, consists of eighteen members. Of these, Don Pelley a senior, is president. The other officers are: Jim Gray (senior,) vice-president; Casella Carlisle (sophomore,) secretary; and Jean Donatone (junior,) treasurer. Mr. Robert Huff and Mr. R. M. Meehan are faculty advisors.

There are certain qualifications for membership. A person elected to the council must have at least a C average at the time of election and must have been a student at Harbor for one semester.

Election of Student Council is held annually in April. Members of the previous year are automatically candidates for the coming year. Three members are chosen from each class.

The duties of the Student Council are many. They run all elections, such as homecoming. Every Thursday they sponsor an assembly, "The Harbor Blue-room," featuring talent from the Student Body. They must approve any new school organizations. They are in charge of concession stands at football and basketball games.

This is Doctor Wanning, your favorite time machine operator. Tonight we switch our screen from Alley Oop in the far past to trace the doings of the Harbor High School Class of 1957 ten years into the future.

Starting right at home, in 1967, we scan the school and find Sandra Lanham serving as Superintendent of the Harbor Schools. She replaced her father, who retired after a nervous breakdown. In the hallowed halls we also see John Dodge, Driver's Training Instructor. He believes in aggressive driving. Carol Acierno has finally replaced Mrs. Eddy, who now resides at the Geneva Rest Home. And Al Talvola, age 28, has just made All-County for the ninth consecutive year.

Setting our dials to look around town, we find George Davis as Head Custodian at Ashtabula High School.

We hear that Katherine Laird, wife of the well-known socialite, John Parker, has just been elected President of the Elvis Presley Fan Club, Ashtabula Chapter.

Norman Stokes is still petitioning City Council to make Lake Avenue into an unsupervised drag strip.

Darla Luce and Barbara Beswick are seen every Saturday afternoon as they each fill a half back spot with the Ashtabula Zippers.

Donna Shaughnessy is a deep-sea diver with Tom Madar's Salvage Company, now operating on the sunken car ferry in the Ashtabula River.

Carol Turner and Roger Hyppa are building a new drugstore across the street from Isaly's.

Ken Paananen is president of the Farmers' National Bank.

Susan Hakala is singing with Charlie Wade's Healing Campaign.

Fred Fitting is a male nurse at Ashtabula General Hospital.

The career of Dr. Jack Leonard, prominent pediatrician, has been interrupted temporarily while he serves a thirty-day jail sentence for hitting Judge Perry with a snowball.

Flashing our view-finder around the nation, at Geneva we see Nancy Reublin and June Narhi working as waitresses in Jim Christensen's hot dog stand. Ronnie DiDonato is stage manager at the Geneva-on-the-Lake Theatre, where Jane Alfred leads a star-studded review. Kicking in the chorus line are Beverly Broughton and Diane Amidon.

In New York we see Mel Carpenter, first man to climb the Empire State Building on the outside. He is billed as "The Human Fly."

In Madison Square Garden we see Bill Cousins, who plays center for the Harlem Globetrotters. He travels around the country with his valet, Jon Altonen.

Singing for the Salvation Army are Dick Johnson, Jim Bordeaux and Gary Lesperance. Their slogan is "Don't applaud, just throw money!" They are assisted by Dave Norris and Phil Maenpa, who play in the band. A generous donar is Ted Atzemis, vice-president of the National Biscuit Company.

Barbara Lamb writes a syndicated column for expectant mothers.

Prophecy

In Chicago we find international spy, Gordon Olsen, who recently published his new book, I LED NINE LIVES.

Donna Sidbeck and Phyllis Bruno, also writers, are working on a children's book entitled BLOODLUST.

Don Watts is the tattooed man with Barnum and Bailey's Circus.

In Indianapolis Debbie McMorris recently placed third in the "500." Her mechanic is John Heino.

Beverly Uitto owns and operates a worm ranch in Texas.

Don Pelley is a perennial front runner in the eight-day bicycle races.

Theresa Mauro recently completed a three-week engagement as a bubble-dancer at Bill March's supper club in Cairo, Illinois.

In Cleveland Bill Tiitto is all-pro water boy for the Cleveland Browns.

Ken Haber is a glass-blower at the Owen-Corning glassworks.

Shifting our lens to foreign countries, we see Sally Laitinen and Lynnor Karhu flying around the world in a 1912 Farman biplane.

In Canada is Dick Macaro, head of the Moose Conservation Board.

Ruth Ann Hjerpe is serving with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. She always gets her man.

JoJo Monda has recently enlisted in the United States Army.

Carol and Ann Hall and Susan and Mary Lou Jaskela are touring the world, putting on an exhibition of Australian tag-team wrestling. On their travels they often run across Don Peters, who is a Yugoslavian diplomatic courier.

In Madagascar we find Brian Kane and Sally Brandstake, bobby-sox idols, who are working on their latest picture, "Flaming Passion." Producer-director of the film is James Woodworth, who developed the new film process, "Surround-o-scope."

Ah! there we see Jim Smith and Earl Schleicher, who are prospecting for uranium in Queensland, Australia!

Climaxing a brilliant service career, Jim Gray is now a Lieutenant General commanding the WAC's. Also in the army Lt. Colonel Charles Frend is the first man to travel into outer space. He traveled in a rocket designed by the famous woman physicist, Marie McCoy.

Dave Belknap is assistant curator of the Museum of Natural History at Hershey, Pennsylvania.

Mary Lois Lindenmayer is a spot welder in Montreal, Canada.

Penny Behrendt is the first woman senator from Ohio. Her campaign manager is Gary Mintz.

Going to the 1968 Olympics will be Lonnie Parker, shot put star at Colorado Mining College. Working with her is Naomi Watts, noted pole vaulter.

Dave Fitzgerald is an automatic engineer with Mercedes-Benz in Germany. Dave Haytcher is head driver on their racing team.

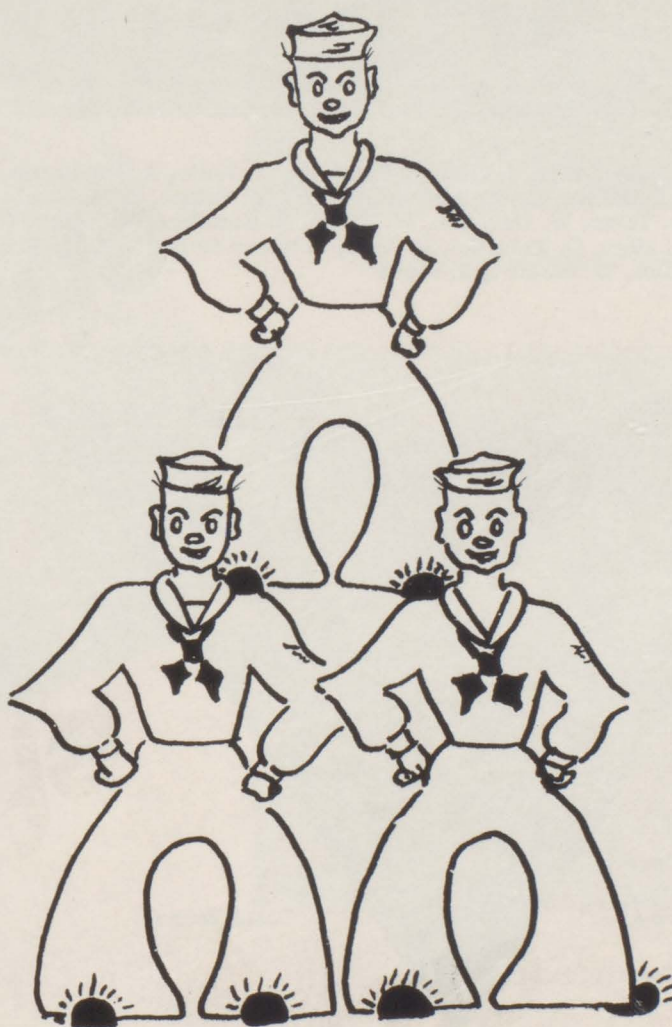

Returning to the year 1957, we hope the graduates will profit from this glimpse of their future.

	Harbor 8	Geneva	6

The 1956 football season turned out to be a very memorable one for the Harbor Mariners. Coach Soltys was justly proud of his team, which boasts an undefeated season. The Mariners were also champions of the Western Reserve League. Coached by Norbeat Soltys and John Abel, and led by co-captains Dick Macaro and Al Talvola, the boys showed good teamwork and spirit throughout the season. School spirit was high and the team was followed and supported by a number of fans. Besides remaining undefeated, the Mariners won the Golden Anchor in the annual Anchor Game with Edgewood.

At recognition, every boy on the squad was presented with a special trophy to remind him that he was a member of an undefeated team.

Seniors graduating from the squad are John Dodge, Bob Frend, Jim Bordeaux, Al Talvola, Dick Macaro, Jon Altonen, Bill Tiitto, Brian Kane, Jim Gray, Wayne Pasanen, and Jim Smith.

Track season opened with the interclass track meet in April. This is an annual event in which the sophomore, junior, and senior classes compete with each other to see which class can earn the most points. It helps the boys to get in shape for the season.

During the season Harbor competed with all Western Reserve League teams.

Golf Team

B. Davidson, A. Talvola, R. Meehan, advisor, R. Hyppa, N. Kneen.

The Golf Team, a fairly new sport at Harbor, has become quite popular in the last two years. Mr. Meehan, the advisor, started making preparations for the coming season early in the year. Willoughby, Cleveland Shaw, Painesville Harvey, and Chardon were being lined up as prospective opponents in March. The home matches started on the first of May. Away matches were planned for April.

Veterans, Bill Davidson, Roger Hyppa, Nick Kneen, and Al Talvola were swinging the irons again for Harbor as they completed their second year. The new members of the team, who saw action in the 1957 season, are Paul Long and Tom Buonomo.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of Harbor High School, city of Ashtabula, state of Ohio, United States of America, on this fifth day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath in a sudden burst of generosity to certain of the faculty and to the juniors, that they may better live up to the standards we have set for them, these the most cherished of our possessions:

Item I To the school we leave a special room where 305 is now located so that students will not have to do their romancing in the halls.

Item II To Mr. Lanham we leave a special edition of Webster's Dictionary, which contains the word, "notagona."

Item III To our hard-working advisor, Mr. Hanshumaker, we leave our overwhelming gratitude and several miles of blue starry crepe paper left over from the prom.

Item IV We, as individuals, distribute these various qualities and possessions among those lucky members of the junior class, that they may benefit by our experiences.

I, CAROL ACIERNO, leave my drum major's whistle to Karen Knudsen and my long walk to school to Karen Niemi.

We, BARBARA ADAMS and RONNIE DIDONATO, leave our doglike devotion to Marlea Laird and Gary Gustafson.

I, JANE ALFRED, leave my mad passion for Pepsi to Judy Balog, and I also leave Bob in her tender care.

I, JON ALTONEN, leave my position as center on the football team to Jane Buzzard, and my fair complexion to Larry Triozzi.

We, DIANE AMIDON and JOHN DODGE, leave our seats in the last row of Shea's balcony to Jane Campbell and Paul Long in hopes that they will enjoy them as we have.

I, TED ATZEMIS, leave my interest in the bakery and my nickname, "Chub", to Dave Sasso.

I, PENNY BEHRENDT, leave my dimple to Bill Hill.

I, DAVE BELKNAP, leave my man-about-town attitude to John Hyppa, and my silver-toned trumpet to Walter Niemi.

I, BARBARA BESWICK, leave my shining blonde hair and blue eyes to Merle Morrison.

I, JIM BORDEAUX, leave my big nose to Patsy Miller and my nickname, "Swivelhips," to Jim Sutherland.

I, SALLY BRANDSTAKE, leave my newness at Harbor to Elinor Gehring.

I, BEVERLY BROUGHTON, leave my pleasing personality and my uptown connections to John Pearson.

I, PHYLLIS BRUNO, leave my quiet ways to Marianne Evkovich and dark hair to Sally Wassie.

I, MEL CARPENTER, leave my curly red hair and my freckles to John Higerd.

We, JIM CHRISTENSEN and WAYNE PASANEN, leave our love for younger girls to David Koski and David Pearson.

I, BILL COUSINS, leave my motor scooter to Nancy Uitto.

I, GEORGE DAVIS, leave my mop, bucket, and soapy water to Sue Turner.

I, FRED FITTING, leave my Finish descent and my love for nisua to Jean Donatone.

I, DAVID FITZGERALD, leave my air of mystery to Ronnie Pillars.

I, BOB FREND, leave my way with women to Roger Gill.

I, JIM GRAY, leave my wholesome, red-blooded-American-boy ways to Dick Simmen.

I, KEN HABER, leave the keys to Mr. Meehan's office to Richard Jopperi.

I, SUSAN HAKALA, leave my beautiful soprano voice to Terry Luke.

I, ANN HALL, leave my bottle of hydrogen peroxide to Kathy Parker so that she may follow in my footsteps.

I, CAROL HALL, leave my sharp figure and my friendly ways to Barby Miller.

I, DAVE HAYTCHER, leave my free "taxi service" to Don Tiitto.

I, JOHN HEINO, leave my angelic look to Rick Cermelj.

I, CHARLES HEISROTH, leave my crutches and my chemistry lab book to Gary Benson.

I, CHARLOTTE HEISROTH, leave my cheering yells and my pixyish looks to Norma Karhulahti.

I, RUTH ANN HJERPE, leave my reserved spot at the Point to Gerry Farman.
 I, ROGER HYPPA, leave my obstinate attitude and my nickname, "Crow," to Vicki Vacchelli.
 I, MARY LOU JASKELA, leave my position as editor of the Mariner to Becky R. Johnson.
 I, SUSAN JASKELA, leave my determination to be a nurse to Carl Schoendorfer.
 I, RICHARD JOHNSON, leave my skill at basketball and my nickname, "Skinny J.," to Becky L. Johnson.
 I, BRIAN KANE, leave my science fiction books and used test tubes to Nick Kneen.
 I, LYNNOR KARHU, leave my Finn stubbornness to Gerry Greener.
 I, KAKI LAIRD, leave my "wild parties" to Vince Grippe, and my naturally curly hair to Jay Taylor.
 I, SALLY LAITINEN, leave my home permanent kit to Paul Long.
 I, BARBY LAMB, leave my baby-sitting jobs to Dennis Peters.
 I, SANDRA LANHAM, leave my pony-tail and my love of Italians to Elsa Hanninen.
 I, MARY LOIS LINDENMAYER, leave my castles in the air, and my love of the Irish to Sue Smith.
 I, JACK LEONARD, leave my line with girls of all ages to Ray Beckman.
 I, GARY LESPERANCE, leave my nickname, "Squeaks," and my pipe to Carol Cramp.
 I, DARLA LUCE, leave my typewriter and my long, blonde hair to Katy Orsag.
 I, MARIE MCCOY, leave my homecoming crown to Ronnie Depue.
 I, DEBBIE McMORRIS, leave my devilish ways to Fred Matticola.
 We, DICK MACARO and AL TALVOLA, leave our duties checking up on the football team to Loder Lampela and Al Lundstrom. May they carry on in true Mariner tradition.
 I, TOM MADAR, leave my little black book to Paul Chapman.
 I, PHIL MAENPA, leave my Elvis Presley haircut and my seventh grade fan club to Erno Lindenmayer.
 I, BILL MARCH, leave my dancing shoes to Ronald Carey and my french horn to Susan Hjerpe.
 I, THERESA MAURO, leave my ready smile to Bonnie Bishop.
 I, GARY MINTZ, leave my bedroom eyes to Nancy Morrison.
 I, JO JO MONDA, leave my pleasing height to Bob Spring.
 I, JUNE NARHI, leave my uptown boyfriends to Sara Salo.
 I, DAVE NORRIS, leave my convertible and my used clarinet reeds to Gerry Nordgren.
 I, GORDON OLSEN, leave my bottle of hair tonic to Connie Kauffman.
 I, KEN PANANEN, leave my seat in assembly to Karen Cozart.
 I, JOHN PARKER, leave my red "bomb" to Earl Gray and my fish frying ability to Dave Searl.
 I, LONNIE PARKER, leave my big brown eyes to Anna Olson.
 I, DON PELLE, leave my corny joke book to Bob Riddell and my deep bass voice to Dave Johnson.
 I, DON PETERS, leave my love of books to Bill Schauweker.
 I, NANCY REUBLIN, leave my constant letter-writing to Mary Lee Perkins.
 I, EARL SCHLEICHER, leave my pointless questions in class to Charles Sarell.
 I, DONNA SHAUGHNESSY, leave my Irish eyes to Joan Kellstrom.
 I, DONNA SIDBECK, leave my athletic ability to Judy Maunus.
 I, JIM SMITH, leave my dead-pan expression to Karl Reimer.
 I, NORMAN STOKES, leave my organized drag races at Walnut Beach to Brian Hill.
 I, BILL TIITTO, leave my shyness to Dick DiDonato, and my baby brother, Don, to Jane Stranman.

GAS THE IDEAL FUEL

Modern living means automatic living with GAS and modern GAS appliances. From ranges with top burner heat control . . . to automatic furnaces. . . today's gas appliances do more work than ever before. — And modern gas appliances with their decorator colors and smart lines are designed to please the eye — an important factor in today's homes where work areas are living areas, too. All through the house, GAS is at your service, waiting to work for you — automatically — at the flick of your finger. For modern — as — tomorrow living, GAS is the ideal fuel.
